Young person's services

East Hertfordshire

Rose Court

Rose Court is a purpose-built scheme providing support and accommodation for 28 young people, including six young parents and their babies.

The scheme offers 14 two-bedroom flats, each with their own video entry system.

Each flat is shared by two residents, who have their own bathroom and shared kitchen facilities.

The scheme also includes a large communal lounge with television, spacious training room and outdoor communal garden.

Additional information

Rose Court is based in Hertford, with excellent training facilities and close to local shops and transport links.

The scheme has a project team available 24 hours a day, seven days a week.
